Juristic Person. In this Security Agreement the term “Juristic Person” means an abstract legal entity Ens Legis, such as a corporation, by construct of law and considered as possessing certain legal rights of a human being; an imaginary entity such as a Debtor, i.e. DASH LALONDE.

From the earliest times the law has enforced rights and exacted liabilities by utilising a corporate concept by recognizing, that is, juristic persons other than human beings. The theories by which this mode of legal has developed, has been justified, qualified, and defined are the subject matter of a very sizeable library. The historic roots of a particular society, economic pressures, philosophic notions, all have had their share in the law's response to the way men in carrying on their affairs through what is now the familiar devices of the corporations.

Attribution of legal rights and duties to the juristic person other than man is necessarily a metaphorical process. And none the worse for it. No doubt, “Metaphors in law are to be narrowly watched.” (Cardozo. J...In Berkey V. Third Avenue R. Co., 244N.Y.84.94). “But all instruments of thought should be narrowly watched lest they be abused and fail in their services to reason”. See US V SCOPHONY CORP. OF AMERICA, 333 U.S. 795; 68 S. Ct. 855; 1948 U.U.

Living, Breathing, Flesh-and-Blood Man. In this Security Agreement the term “Living, Breathing, flesh-and-blood man” means the Secured Party, :dash;©, a sentient being, living being, as distinguished from an artificial legal construct, Ens Legis, I.e. a juristic person, created by construct of law.

Non Obstante, In this Security Agreement the term “Non Obstante” means words anciently used in public and private instruments with the intent of precluding, in advance, any interpretation other than certain declared objects, purposes.

“There, every man is independent of all laws, except those prescribed by nature. He is not bound by any institutions formed by his fellowman without his consent”.

CRUDEN v NEALE, 2 N.C. 338 (1796) 2 S.E. 70.

Security Agreement.
